

15 June 1954

To: Mr. Dulles

1. Before the IAC business gets under way, you may wish to note and express your good wishes regarding the following:

The Director of Naval Intelligence has just been designated "Assistant Chief of Naval Operations (Intelligence)."

2. This action represents an affirmation of the importance of intelligence to and within the Department of the Navy, and therefore is of interest to all members of the IAC.

STATINT
L

[Redacted Box]
Secretary